This afternoon, meet Dave & Jeanie Johnston at the MSP Airport for your flight to the UK & Ireland! You will check-in as a group, so tickets will be handed out at the airport. There will be a connecting flight between here & there, so you will have some time to walk around & enjoy dinner before boarding the plane. But don't eat too much, as dinner will be served on-board the airplane. Then, settle into your seat & prepare to spend the night as the low rumble of the engines lull you to sleep!

April 24 | Bath, England

You will then head outside to your waiting motor coach that will whisk you down the road to Bath, England, known for its famous white Edwardian Architecture. Along the way, enjoy an included stop at Stonehenge to visit these ancient ruins. You will then arrive in Bath where you will check into your centrally located hotel. You are then free to explore the area for the rest of the day. Maybe visit the Roman Baths or dine at the famous "Pump House" where all the fashionable people ate back in the 1700s. ### April 25 | Cruising Begins from Bristol, England

After a relaxing morning, depart your hotel in Bath around noon for the short drive to Bristol on the coast. After enjoying a short drive around the city to see the sights, it's time to board your British Ambassador Ship, The Ambition. With just 749 cabins, this is a small ship catering only to adults 50 plus or more! After checking in, it's time to try to find your cabin. Then feel free to spend some time exploring the ship & finding all the interesting nooks & crannies on-board. The ship sails at 4:00 PM, so grab a spot at the rail & wave goodbye to Bristol as you head out to sea! This evening, join your fellow Jeanie's Journeys travelers for dinner at 6:00 PM (or 1800 as the rest of the world calls it). Each evening we will meet at 6:00 PM for dinner as a group if you wish. There are other options, such as the buffet & specialty restaurants where you pay an extra fee. After dinner, enjoy the entertainment on-board with your fellow travelers.

April 26 | Cornwall (Falmouth), England

England's southwest corner is steeped in legend & history. Tintagel Castle in Cornwall is the traditional birthplace of King Arthur. Falmouth, which boasts a superb deep-water harbour - the third-largest in the world - shares the Cornish coast's colorful history of shipwrecks, smuggling & privateering. Cornwall is scenic England at its best, with superb seascapes, picturesque harbors & countryside of green fields & hedgerows, quaint villages & low-slung granite farmhouses. One of the southernmost locations in England, enjoy the small palm trees as you tour this beach destination.

April 27 | Sea Day

Today enjoy a full day of cruising at sea! The heart of this beautiful ship is the impressive three-decked Centre Court where you will find Dicken's for some refreshment, Ambassador Casino, shopping galleria, photo gallery, & destination experiences. Other facilities on Ambition include Coffee House, Aces & Eights Bridge & Card room, Kapoor's Crafters Studio, Bronte's Library, Active Studio, gym, and Wellness Spa. Don't forget to take tea in dining room this afternoon! In addition to all of this, the evening brings even more delights with a wonderful 5-course dinner, entertainment & dancing to follow. Sea days are just fantastic!

April 28 | Bantry, Ireland

Founded in the 7th century by St. Fin Barre, Bantry is your gateway to romantic Ireland. Stroll down narrow country lanes or see the Lakes of Killarney in Killarney National Park. You might hire a jaunting cart & Jarvey driver to take you by horse through the park. The region around Bantry is also home to one of the densest concentration of prehistoric monuments in Western Europe. And, in a land where fable & fact blend to become folklore, it was near Cork that the great Tuatha De Danaan, a race with magical powers, was driven underground by the conquering Celts!

April 29 | Cork, Ireland (Cobh)

Cobh was the single most important port of emigration from Ireland. Here the Titanic made its last stop before heading out to sea on its disastrous voyage. If you wish, you may visit the museum here dedicated to its

April 30 | Belfast, Northern Ireland

The capital of Northern Ireland - part of the United Kingdom - Belfast has experienced a renaissance since the Good Friday Agreement of 1998 that promised an end to the decades-old "Troubles" between Catholics and Protestants. Stretching along both sides of the River Lagan, this graceful city of Victorian and Edwardian buildings has become a cosmopolitan tourist destination. If you like, visit the Titanic Museum, the largest in the world, located where the ship itself was built. Explore this exuberant city, marvel at the Giant's Causeway just up the coast, or shop for the superb Irish linens produced in the area!

May 1 | Sea Day

As you head southward, spend your last day at sea enjoying all the amenities the ship has to offer. Enjoy relaxing on-board with newfound friends in a game of cards. Enjoy learning a new craft, or just hang out in the comfortable chairs on-board with a good book. Get outside & walk around the deck enjoying the brisk sea air or work out in the gym. By now you will have made a lot of new British friends. Make sure you exchange addresses so you can meet up once again someday! Don't forget to pack your suitcase for your departure home tonight. Then head off to one last dinner, a show & dancing in the disco before heading off to sleep!

May 2 | Arrival in Bristol (England) & Home

This morning the ship arrives very early in the morning into the Bristol harbor. After one last enjoyable breakfast, it is time to depart the ship & head to Heathrow Airport.
