

Dance Through Canada's Fall Color on the Queen Mary 2

A Journey from French Canada to New York City

September 24-October 2, 2027

Experience the spectacular fall colors of French Canada and the Atlantic coast aboard the legendary Queen Mary 2! Enjoy beautiful ports, elegant ocean travel, fabulous dining, live entertainment, and so much more. Dance lovers can take to the magnificent Queens Room with included lessons from Amy Hanson, three-time defending Dancers Cup Tour Top Teacher, plus live music and big-band evenings. New to dancing? Come give it a try! Traveling solo? No worries - we'll have several single dancers ready to join you on the dance floor. And if dancing isn't your thing, simply relax and enjoy everything this extraordinary ocean liner has to offer. Come to dance, explore, relax, or do it all - this is a fall adventure you won't want to miss!

September 24 | Quebec City, Canada

Meet your Adventure Guide, Davey Johnston, at MSP Terminal 1 for your flight to Quebec City.

Upon arrival, our private coach will take us to the magnificent Queen Mary 2, where we'll board and settle in for our adventure. The ship remains overnight in Quebec City, giving us the perfect beginning to our voyage. You may even want to head off the ship and do a little exploring in this very French city.

Included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner & High Tea on-board

SHIP: CUNARD'S QUEEN MARY 2

September 25 | Quebec City, Canada

Depart Evening

Enjoy a full day to discover beautiful Quebec City before we set sail. Old Quebec is the only fortified city north of Mexico and feels like a little piece of Europe in North America. Stroll the cobblestone streets, browse charming boutiques and galleries, explore the picturesque Petit-Champlain district, ride the funicular, or admire the magnificent views of the St. Lawrence River. Be sure to sample a local favorite such as maple treats or Quebec's famous sugar pie! This evening, return to the Queen Mary 2 as we begin our voyage.

Jeanie Recommends: Wandering the lovely streets of Quebec City

September 26 | Saguenay, Quebec Arrive Early Morning | Depart Evening

Surrounded by dramatic cliffs, forests, and the magnificent Saguenay Fjord, this is one of Quebec's most beautiful regions. Discover the area's French-Canadian heritage, visit local museums, sample artisan cheeses and regional specialties, or simply enjoy the spectacular scenery. The Saguenay-St. Lawrence region is also famous for whale watching, with belugas, minke, fin whales, and even blue whales found in these waters.

Jeanie Recommends: Explore the majestic Saguenay Fjord National Park

September 27 | Sept-Iles, Quebec Arrive Morning | Depart Afternoon

Discover a beautiful corner of Quebec where forests, lakes, beaches, and the Gulf of St. Lawrence come together. Learn about the culture and traditions of the Innu people, explore the area's historic fur-trading past, or enjoy the natural beauty surrounding Sept-Îles. The nearby islands are important bird sanctuaries, while the waters of the Gulf are home to numerous species of whales.

Jeanie Recommends: Explore the stunning Sept-Îles Archipelago

September 28 | At Sea

Today is yours to experience everything that makes the Queen Mary 2 so special! Start the day with a stroll around the Promenade Deck, attend an enrichment lecture, browse the ship's impressive library, relax by the pool, visit the spa, or simply find a comfortable chair and watch the Atlantic roll by. And, of course, don't forget your dancing shoes! Join an included dance lesson with a professional instructor and learn or polish your ballroom steps. Later, head to the beautiful Queens Room and enjoy an evening of dancing to live music and the sounds of the big band. You can also enjoy fabulous dining, afternoon tea, live entertainment, the Royal Court Theatre, and Illuminations - the ship's unique planetarium and entertainment venue. A day at sea aboard Queen Mary 2 is an experience all its own!

September 29 | Halifax, Nova Scotia Arrive Early Morning | Depart Evening

Welcome to Halifax, the lively capital of Nova Scotia. Discover the city's fascinating maritime history, waterfront, shops, restaurants, and historic neighborhoods. One of the city's treasures is the beautiful Halifax Public Gardens, a peaceful Victorian garden filled with manicured lawns, winding paths, colorful flower beds, and its charming bandstand. Enjoy your day exploring this friendly Canadian port before returning to the Queen Mary 2.

Jeanie Recommends: Explore the Boardwalk or take a day trip to visit the famous Peggy's Cove

Enjoy one final glorious day aboard the Queen Mary 2 as we sail toward New York City. Take advantage of anything you may have missed - enjoy afternoon tea, attend another dance lesson, relax with friends, explore the ship, or simply savor the elegance of ocean travel. Tonight is our last evening aboard, so make it special! Enjoy a wonderful dinner followed by live entertainment and one more chance to take to the dance floor in the magnificent Queens Room. Dance to the music, reminisce about the wonderful places we've visited, and celebrate our final night at sea together. Tomorrow morning brings one of cruising's great experiences - our arrival in New York City!

October 1 | New York City

This morning, arrive in one of the world's most exciting cities. Sailing into New York aboard the Queen Mary 2 is a memorable finale to our voyage! After disembarking, enjoy an included introductory tour of New York City and get a taste of the landmarks, neighborhoods, skyscrapers, and energy that make the Big Apple unlike anywhere else. Our hotel this evening is conveniently located just off Times Square, putting us right in the heart of the action. Early this evening, enjoy an included dinner at Gayle's Broadway Rose, where talented aspiring Broadway performers serve as your singing waitstaff and serenade you with favorite Broadway show tunes! After dinner, the rest of the evening is yours. Take in a Broadway show, explore Times Square, or simply soak up the excitement of New York City on our final night.

Included: Dinner
