August 29 | Bergen

Today, arrive at the first stop on your cruise: Bergen, Norway! Bergen is a former Viking stronghold girded by deep fjords, towering mountains and sweeping glaciers. Today, Jeanie's friend Kristina joins your group for an included walking tour of Bergen. This city located on the southwest coast of Norway is straight out of a storybook. At the center of its allure is the old wharf town of Bryggen, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where winding cobblestone alleys transport you back through 400 years of German Hanseatic domination. Indeed, the Middle Ages lurk around every bend of this wonderfully preserved Norwegian treasure. Then hop aboard the city's funicular as it climbs some 1,000 feet above sea level. At the top, stop at the historic restaurant for a bite to eat. As sweeping views of the city, the surrounding mountains and glistening fjords envelop you; it's impossible not to marvel at the beauty of Bergen!

August 30 | Cruising Sognefjord & Aurlandsfjord With a Visit to Flam

The town of Flam, Norway is nestled in a tributary of the world's longest and deepest fjords. Surrounded by steep mountainsides, roaring waterfalls, and deep valleys, you'll experience a one-of-a-kind encounter with nature here. This quaint Norway town is a place of extremes. The epic majesty of Flam's dense green mountains dwarfs even the grandest of cruise ships, and the glass-calm water that surrounds the town woos adventurers from near and far. This is place where you can't help but feel closer to nature for no other reason that it overwhelms at every turn. In Flam, one of the best shore excursions is to board the Flam Railway for the world's steepest train ride and rumble 2,800 feet up through the wilds of Norway. In town, you'll find many restaurants and cafes offering local Norwegian fare made with farm-fresh ingredients. Make sure you sample the famous brown and white goat cheese. Flam is a Norwegian wonderland that's meant to be explored.
