

Christmastime in New York City!

November 16-20, 2026

There's a reason so many Christmas songs are written about New York City. Join Jeanie's Journeys for a heartwarming holiday getaway filled with twinkling lights, Broadway melodies, timeless traditions, and just the right amount of adventure. Enjoy the magic of the season without rushing, staying close to the action and letting the city come to you. Lots of walking on this tour

DAY 1 | WELCOME TO THE BIG APPLE

Meet Dave & Jeanie Johnston, your Adventure Guides, at Terminal 2 and relax as you board your non-stop Sun Country flight to New York City. After arrival, enjoy a comfortable transfer into Manhattan and a delightful included lunch at Fraunces Tavern, built in 1762 and once a favorite dining spot of George Washington. (Yes—New York has always had good taste.) Check-in to your hotel just steps from Times Square, where the lights sparkle, the energy buzzes, and Christmas feels larger than life. This evening is yours to soak it all in, enjoy dinner on your own, and maybe hum a few holiday tunes as you stroll outside. Welcome to New York—where even the buildings seem to dress up for Christmas and sparkle!

INCLUDED: LUNCH

Hotel: The Paramount Hotel (or similar)

DAY 2 | CLASSIC NEW YORK, CHRISTMAS STYLE

After an included breakfast, meet your local guide & enjoy a tour highlighting the city's most beloved landmarks—with plenty of time to look, listen, and enjoy the stories behind the sights. Enjoy a gentle walk to Central Park, including the peaceful "Imagine" memorial and a stroll in Grand Central Station. Have lunch on your own in Little Italy or Chinatown, where aromas alone may be worth the trip. Then continue South to see the Flatiron Building, learn the difference between SoHo and NoHo, and pass historic Trinity Church, Wall Street, and the iconic Charging Bull and Fearless Girl statues. This evening, gather for an included dinner at Gayle's Broadway Rose in the historic Edison Hotel, where singing waitstaff bring Broadway classics to life. Don't be surprised if you find yourself smiling, tapping your toes, or quietly singing along.

INCLUDED: BREAKFAST & DINNER

DAY 3 | ROCKEFELLER CENTER & THE ROCKETTES

After breakfast, enjoy a short stroll to Rockefeller Center—home of the world's most famous Christmas tree, which is currently in the process of being decorated. Ride the elevator to Top of the Rock, where sweeping views of Manhattan, Central Park, and the Empire State Building await. (All the views, none of the climbing.) Next, step inside legendary Radio City Music Hall for the Radio City Christmas Spectacular®, starring the world-famous Rockettes®. This beloved holiday tradition has delighted audiences since 1933 and still manages to feel just as magical today—complete with precision dancing, festive music, and the heartwarming Living Nativity. After the show, visit stunning St. Patrick's Cathedral, followed by time to admire the famous Fifth Avenue Christmas window displays. Return to the hotel together to enjoy the rest of the evening on your own—or linger a little longer if the lights are calling your name.

INCLUDED: BREAKFAST

DAY 4 | HISTORY, HOPE & BROADWAY MAGIC

After breakfast, travel to Lower Manhattan to visit the 9/11 Memorial & Museum. Take time to reflect at the peaceful fountains, walk through the memorial plaza, and see the inspiring Survivor Tree. Then enjoy a scenic ferry ride from Battery Park to Liberty Island to see the Statue of Liberty, followed by Ellis Island, where millions of Americans' stories began. Lunch is on your own on Ellis Island, with seating available.

Return to the hotel for some rest and dinner on your own before heading out for an included Broadway show this evening. The show selection will be announced closer to departure to ensure the best available performance.
INCLUDED: BREAKFAST

DAY 5 | MEMORIES TO TREASURE

After a final included breakfast, travel to the airport for your return flight to the Twin Cities—bringing home wonderful memories of Christmas in New York City.
